New

Frocks for Women

—of Canton Crepe, Georgette or Taffeta—

Monday at 45.00

Panels and fringe a-plenty serve to give the frock illustrated a French air, which is not surprising, since it has been copied from an original French model. It is amazingly simple, and equally smart, boasting the loose slashed sleeve and boat shaped neck. In black, brown and navy.

Another model is of taffeta, its normal bouffancy subdued to give long, slim lines. Cording bands tunic, waist opening and sleeves. In navy, brown and black. Fourth Floor
